FACT SHEET
Global Allocation Fund - I Class
As of June 30, 2019

INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY
The fund seeks long-term capital appreciation and income.
- The Fund’s broad multi-asset class opportunity set includes developed markets and emerging markets equities, a wide range of global developed markets and emerging markets bond strategies, and various diversifying strategies designed to improve risk-adjusted returns.
- The Fund can tactically overweight and underweight asset classes from their normal allocation. The Fund’s normal allocation is approximately 60% equities, 30% global fixed income including exposure to below-investment-grade securities, and 10% alternative investments.
- Tactical decisions are based on a detailed assessment of cross-asset valuations and global capital markets conditions. Tactical decisions may change the risk profile of the fund.

BENEFITS AND RISKS
- In a single offering, the fund offers, global diversification across asset classes and regions of the world, tactical views expressed through portfolio reallocations, and bottom up security selection to create an actively managed global portfolio.
- The fund is subject to the unique risks of international investing, including unfavorable currency exchange rates, political or economic uncertainty abroad, or abrupt and severe price declines. These risks are heightened for investments in emerging markets. The portfolio’s investments in alternative investments and hedge funds are difficult to value and monitor when compared with more traditional investments, and may increase the fund’s liquidity risks. Diversification cannot assure a profit or protect against loss in a declining market. Derivatives are used in the fund for selective market exposures.

Performance data quoted represents past performance and is not a reliable indicator of future performance. Investment return and principal value will fluctuate so that an investor’s shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. Current performance may be lower or higher than the performance data quoted. To obtain the most recent month-end performance, visit trowewebsite.com. Consider the investment objectives, risks, and charges and expenses carefully before investing. For a prospectus or, if available, a summary prospectus containing this and other information, call 1-855-405-6488 or visit trowewebsite.com. Read it carefully. The T. Rowe Price fund shares the portfolio of an existing fund (the original share class of the fund is referred to as the "investor class"). The total return figures for this I Class have been calculated using the performance data of the Investor Class up to the inception date of the I Class (3/23/16) and the actual performance results of the I Class since that date. Because the I Classes are expected to have lower expenses than the Investor Classes, the I Class performance, had it existed over the periods shown, would have been higher. The average annual total return figures reflect the reinvestment of dividends and capital gains, if any. The fund(s) may have other share classes available that offer different investment minimums and fees. See the prospectus for details.
